Literature & Composition Courses

7th/8th Literature & Composition

The theme of this year's reading is time travel; in each selection a character or characters travel through time, through different means. We will also read poetry and some short stories that share this common theme, but these will be provided by the teacher, and therefore do not need to be purchased.

NOTE TO PARENTS: PLEASE do purchase the Royal Fireworks Publishing Company's edition of the top three books listed! The font size is larger than most other editions (which helps middle schoolers handle more challenging vocabulary) and many words' definitions are included at the bottom of the pages. We will be annotating, discussing, and highlighting words and passages in the text in class, so it is important that we are working from the same edition.
